“Where Each is LOVED.”

REFLECTIONS ON THE PROPOSED MISSION STATEMENT

Love is a basic human need. We all need to receive and to give love. As the Apostle Paul says, “Without love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal” (1 Cor. 13:1). Jesus’ New Commandment given on Maundy Thursday at the Last Supper is to “Love one another as I have loved you” (John 13:34). Love is central to the Christian faith and life.

Love is central to our life together at St. Paul’s. We strongly feel the gift and call that Jesus gives us to love one another. It is for this reason that Council is proposing the adoption of a mission statement which highlights this essential calling, and which is also part of the nature and character of this congregation. Council has discerned that “Growing a community where each is valued, accepted, and LOVED,” is at once deeply needed by our neighbors in Reading and a true capacity of this congregation.

“Where Each is LOVED.”

We often are prompted to think of love in February because of Valentine’s Day. Perhaps you learned at some point in your faith formation that in the New Testament, there are different words for love. “Eros” is the Greek word for romantic love, the kind that we often think of on Valentine’s Day. “Philia” is the Greek word for the bond shared between friends. “Agape” is the unconditional love and unwavering commitment of God. The verb “agapao” actually means, “To be well pleased, contented with someone.” Whether or not you have a significant other, you have the unconditional love of God who is so committed to you and to this whole world that Jesus laid down his life in order that you might never be separated from that love. God is well pleased with you.

This issue of the Epistle is full of opportunities for how you can respond to God’s love for you in Christ Jesus. You are invited to read on and engage.

In our life together, we share the bond of friendship, and we strive to love one another unconditionally. By our actions, involvement in our surrounding community, and mission support shared with the greater Church, we seek to share God’s love with the world. We don’t always live this out perfectly. When we fail, we ask for forgiveness and the help of the Holy Spirit to shape us to love like Jesus. We have a vision of a community where each person involved really does experience the love of Jesus.

“Where each is LOVED.” That is a mission well worth the effort. That is a mission we can all get behind. That is a mission that we each need. So does the world.

In Christ,
Pastor Emily Beckering

HOW WE SHARED GOD'S LOVE THROUGH THE GIFT OF A SHEEP

This last year we collected $120 in our quarter tube located in the narthex, which was used in December by the Social Concerns Committee to purchase a sheep. This sheep will provide a family with wool to use and sell as they care for this sheep as a member of God's creation. These donations are sent to Heifer International to end hunger and poverty in developing countries. Thank you for making God's love tangible by your quarter donations.

ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION—FAITH AND FILM FRIDAYS @ 7PM

To grow in faith and discipleship this month, in addition to Thursday morning

ing Bible studies on upcoming Sunday Scripture passages, we will also offer an opportunity to watch the television series The Chosen and discuss its content in community. The Chosen is a multi-season series about the life of Christ; it features stories from the gospels, but artistically expands the storytelling by imagining how Jesus was experienced by those he taught and healed. Though not all aspects of the stories are scripturally verifiable, the series creates opportunity for discussion. Friday nights in February from 7-8:30 pm. Popcorn provided!

For those who are unable to attend in person, you can download the free The Chosen App, or watch it online ahead of time, and then Zoom-in for the discussion using the Bible Study Zoom information below. Discussion will begin at 8 pm and conclude by 8:30 pm.

From the Presiding Bishop: “God has Given Us a Mission”

LOVE THE WORLD BY REACHING MORE PEOPLE WITH JESUS’ LOVE

This article was originally published in the November 2021 issue of Living Lutheran magazine.

Remember the Beatles? John, Paul, George, Ringo! I was into it. I had Beatle boots, love beads and granny glasses. My big brother gave me a model of Paul (the cute Beatle) for Christmas one year. It was one of those paint-it-yourself kits. I knew the lyrics to the Beatles’ hits better than I knew Martin Luther’s Small Catechism. The early hits were pop and upbeat: “I Want to Hold Your Hand,” “A Hard Day’s Night.” Even later “Yellow Submarine” was still whimsical.

But then the Beatles got older, and the world changed. Vietnam, the Kennedy and King assassinations, the urban riots, the 1968 Chicago Democratic convention. Innocence—for those of us who had that luxury—was gone. Skepticism, even cynicism, was the lens through which the world was seen. A lot was broken, including trust in institutions and the church.

God has a different way. It is the way of Jesus. It is the way of love... God so loves the world and all of creation and all of us.

In 1971, John Lennon’s hit “Imagine” came out. It was evocative and, I’m sure, was meant to point us to the possibility of a better future. I found it disturbing. A world without religion. No heaven. No hell. No countries. No possessions. As if excising these things would cure humanity and the world would be as one.

There was and is enough brokenness in the world to go ’round. But the brokenness is not outside of us—in institutions, politics, religion—it is within us. The only way to construct utopia is to get rid of people. Imagine.

Except God has a different way. It is the way of Jesus. It is the way of love. It is the way of life. You see, God so loves the world and all of creation and all of us. God is right down with us in all of our messiness. In Jesus, God has reconciled the world to God’s self, redeeming it and us in spite of our rebellion. We can stake our lives on the relentless, faithful, powerful, tender love of God.

During the pandemic we dreamed great things and imagined an ELCA that could envision a world experiencing the difference God’s grace and love in Christ makes for all people and creation. We prayed and still pray that the Spirit will activate each of us so that more people know the way of Jesus and discover community, justice and love.

Love Your Neighbors as Yourself

This is a story of how the mission support we share with the greater Church in the ELCA extends God's love to our neighbors.

Emily Norris had been serving at Augsburg Lutheran Church's winter-overflow homeless shelter in Winston-Salem, N.C., for a few years when she heard the rumblings. Many of the guests opened up to her, told her stories. One need kept arising.

"I heard very loudly that there was a deep hunger for a faith community that looked like them," Norris said. They craved space where they could worship God and not feel judged for their housing status, their past or their appearance. Heeding their calls led Norris to Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa, to become a pastor.

By 2020, Norris was ordained and serving as the mission developer for the Dwelling, an ELCA faith community designed for, but not exclusive to, people in Winston-Salem who are or have been homeless. Funding comes from partnerships with Augsburg, the North Carolina Synod, the Moravian Church in America and the ELCA churchwide organization, which draws on Mission Support for the Dwelling's grant.

Starting a church during a pandemic wasn't ideal. Safety restrictions made worship impossible, and the population Norris had hoped to reach became especially vulnerable. So she did what many ELCA leaders and congregations were forced to do: she pivoted.

After assessing community needs, Norris determined that free mobile showers would be the Dwelling's anchor ministry. Visitors could take showers and receive clean underwear, socks and T-shirts donated by nearby members of the Dwelling's synod.

"It was really a profound way to start," Norris said. "Showers provide a sense of dignity and are therapeutic. I don't know a better way to remind people of their baptism."

Eventually the showers became permanent, with participants volunteering to help the program. By Christmas Eve, area restrictions for gatherings had been relaxed, and Norris held the Dwelling's first service. In January 2021, it began offering regular Sunday worship.

With a living room for its sanctuary, couches and chairs for its pews, and free-flowing food, the Dwelling takes seriously its mission of hospitality. "It has a feather touch, where you can come in and get comfy," said member Cheryl Morrison. "It's OK to talk to the person next to you, get up to get a cup of coffee, doughnut or muffin."

"This is a church for God's people — the homeless — and they are the foundation of what makes this church work, which in my eyes is extremely special;" added Ryan Sprinkle, a council member. "You have people right off the street with their backpacks."

From the Presiding Bishop: “God has Given Us a Mission”

And we set a goal—engage a million new, young and diverse people by the end of this decade. Why? Because the world deserves to hear the gospel. The world needs to look beyond itself. There is a heaven.

Clearly this is not the work of the church-wide organization alone, nor of any one congregation. It is a mission for all of us. There are so many people who do not know that they need to know Jesus. There are so many people who think that God’s grace is too good to be true. There are so many people searching for meaning. All are beloved by God. God longs to draw all people to Godself, to clean us up and wash our faces so that God’s image shines clearly from all of us, so that we can see God’s image shining from each other.

New, young and diverse? What about those of us who are already here, have always been here, who have been doing the work and paying the bills? We are the 99 sheep that didn’t go astray. We are the older brother who stayed home and worked hard. Of course we are!

We have lived in the love of Jesus and walked in Jesus’ way. We know the freedom of the Christian. We don’t live in an unforgiving world, but in a redeemed world with a future. Why wouldn’t we want to share that with as many people as we can?

Even a million new, young and diverse people—why stop there? The flock was not whole until the one lost was found. The older brother did not realize that all his father had was already his as a gift. This is true for us. God has given this mission to invite more people into the way of Jesus. Imagine.

Presiding Bishop Elizabeth A. Eaton

Love the Lord with All Your Heart and Soul

LOOKING FORWARD TO LENT

Feed your faith, heart, and soul! Lent begins March 2 with Ash Wednesday. St. Paul's will offer in-person and livestreamed worship services on Ash Wednesday and during Holy Week.

This Lent, we are working in partnership with our sisters and brothers in Christ in ELCA congregations in the Cincinnati Conference to do joint midweek Lenten services. For the five Wednesdays in Lent (after Ash Wednesday), we will only be virtual, and we will worship jointly with our sisters and brothers in Cincinnati by sharing the link to a worship service from a different congregation in our conference. This experience is something to which to look forward; it is a chance to connect with other Christians and to be encouraged by the Holy Spirit's work in the Greater Church.
